

THE REVEREND MARY BEA SULLIVAN
IPC PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN'S RETREAT
GUEST SPEAKER

Mary Bea Sullivan is a graduate of Virginia Theological Seminary and Associate Rector at Saint Luke's Episcopal Church in Birmingham, Alabama. She is the Chair of the Commission on Spirituality in the Diocese of Alabama and is on the faculty for the Metagem Institute. Mary Bea is married to the Reverend Malcolm Marler. When she isn't writing a sermon or visiting a parishioner, Mary Bea can be found traipsing through the woods or cycling on the roads. She is passionate about family and savors time with Malcolm, their two adult children, Brendan and Kiki, dog Beau, and her large extended family.

On Saturday, Jan. 25 from 8:30 am- 12 pm, join the Reverend Mary Bea Sullivan at IPC as she melds stories and practices to help us reclaim offering ourselves to Jesus' way of love. Rooted in the scriptural practices to Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, and Rest, Mary Bea will guide us to set our hearts toward God in preparation for a Holy Lent. She will also be joined by St. Luke's Artist in Residence Shaun Pezant.
