1 Praise ye the Lord, the Al - might - y, the King of cre -
 2 Praise ye the Lord, who o'er all things so won-drous - ly 3 Praise ye the Lord! O let all that is in me a - a - tion! O my soul, praise him, for he is thy reign - eth, shel - ters thee un - der his wings, yea, so dore him! All that hath life and breath, come now with health and sal - va - tion! All ye who hear, now to his gen - tly sus - tain - eth! Hast thou not seen how thy de - prais - es be - fore him! Let the a - men sound from his tem - ple draw near; join me in glad ad - o - ra - tion!

 sires e'er have been grant - ed in what he or - dain - eth?
 peo - ple a - gain; glad - ly for aye we a - dore him.

This very strong 17th-century German hymn employs many phrases from the psalms, especially Psalms 150 and 103:1-6. It did not receive an effective English translation until the mid-19th century, but has remained popular ever since, thanks in part to its stirring tune.

In 1968 Easter fell ten days after the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., and this text was written to express an Easter hope while mindful of that terrible event. Buoyed by a triple-arched tune, it affirms the presence of a wounded, risen Christ with all who suffer.

This Easter text, first in French and later in English, was written to fit the music, a chorus created for Handel's oratorio Joshua and moved to Judas Maccabeus in 1751. It grew widely popular following its use at the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1948.

Son; end - less is the vic - tory thou o'er death hast won.
