Andrew Pomerville, president of Louisville Seminary, has a successful record in both higher education and ecumenical parish ministry—a record defined by INNOVATION, ENERGY, and JOYFUL COMMUNICATION.

Ordained in the Presbyterian Church (USA), Andrew is a graduate of three Presbyterian schools:

- BA in history and religious studies, Alma College (2001)
- MDiv, Princeton Theological Seminary (2007)
- DMin, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary (2018), focusing on Reformed Theology in a joint program with the University of Aberdeen

In addition, Andrew holds a certificate in Adaptive Leadership from Michigan State University's College of Business, an Executive Certificate for Religious Fundraising (ECRF) from the Lake Institute on Faith & Giving at Indiana University (IUPUI), and a certificate in Presidential Leadership Development from CREDO.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST, ANDREW IS...

...COMMITTED TO STUDENT FORMATION

- An experienced, active recruiter who exceeded goals for increased enrollment and implemented graduation requirements for off-campus engagement
- Successful in developing and teaching new courses in Practical Theology, Interfaith Relationships, and Nonprofit Management
- Experienced in guiding graduates to next steps as former Director of Alma College's Pre-Ministry Professional Program (where he led graduates to Louisville Seminary!)

...A CHAMPION FOR ANTI-RACISM POLICIES

and LGBTQIA+-affirming practices in education and the Church.

...AN ACCOMPLISHED FINANCIAL AND FUNDRAISING LEADER

Andrew was named one of ten Church Financial Leadership Coaches by the Presbyterian Foundation. In his ministerial leadership, he has developed financial acumen with a love for fundraising, stewardship of relationships, and recruitment of new giving partners.

...ACTIVE IN COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT, SERVING AS

- Former Chair of the Board of NYAKA, a foundation in Uganda focusing on AIDS orphans
- Founding Director of the Alma Center for College and Community Engagement
- Chair of the Lilly-Funded Louisville Institute
- Board member for the Center for Congregations
