

LIFE OF THE COMMUNITY

WELCOME VISITORS AND NEW MEMBERS! We would love to welcome you as a new member of our family of faith at IPC. Please indicate your interest by checking the appropriate column on the Friendship pad or call Cindy Shaw at the church office, 933-3696. "Like" us on Facebook at IPCBirmingham.

GRACE GROUPS SIGN-UP IN HIGHLAND HALL TODAY! Join a small group Bible study for 6 weeks during Lent. The dates are February 23 – April 4. We are studying Charter of Christian Freedom – A Layperson's Guide to Paul's Letter to the Galatians by Gordon Lindsey ($15). Books are available in Highland Hall and also throughout the week during office hours at the IPC receptionist desk. On Monday, February 24, Rev. Lindsey will visit IPC to sign books at 4:30-5:30 p.m. in the Parlor and give a presentation at 5:30-6:30 p.m. in the Great Hall. For more information, contact Cindy Shaw at cshaw@ipc-usa.org or 933-3696.

SPRING BREAK FOOD BAGS: This year, we are engaging in a congregation-wide Lent project to provide spring break food bags for our STAIR and LIFT OFF families. Our students in these programs attend Hayes K-8 School which is Title I, and all our students qualify for free and reduced lunch. When the children are out of school and not receiving two meals a day, our families struggle with hunger. We are asking The Table to participate by bringing fruit cups or applesauce cups and oatmeal. If you are willing to participate, please bring these items to worship between now and March 12. There will be a box outside of the Assembly Hall. If we receive more than we need, the remainder will go to the IPC Food Pantry.

OUR NEXT CANCER SUPPORT GROUP MEETING will be on March 2, 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. in Room G39. The group is led by St. Vincent Bruno Cancer Center counselor Louis Josof and is open to all who are battling cancer, are survivors of cancer, or those who love someone who is. The group is free, and no RSVP is necessary. For additional information, contact Connie Logan at clogan@ipc-usa.org.

TUESDAY BINGO AT FIRST LIGHT: We are continuing to collect small, NEW prizes in the basket by the elevator next to the reception desk. All prizes can be easily found at the Dollar Tree. Prize suggestions include: hats, gloves, lotions, journals, socks, scarves, toys, adult coloring books, coin purses, puzzle books, and $5 McDonalds giftcards. For questions or to volunteer Tuesdays at 4:00 p.m., contact Susan Dukes at sdukes@ipc-usa.org.
