

2024 IPC MISSION JOURNEYS

INITIAL Application

- Our Core Values: The Global Missions Ministry of IPC seeks to:
- Provide opportunities for as many IPC members as possible to participate in God's mission in the United States and around the world
- Develop and nurture ongoing partnerships with churches and ministries around the world
- Facilitate lasting transformation in the lives of mission journey participants through faith formation, cross-cultural experience, and meaningful service

Cost*

The cost varies for each of our 5 international journeys. In some cases, ground transportation, room, and board are subsidized by grants and other gifts. Participants pay for their own airfare, which is usually purchased by IPC, and then participants reimburse IPC according to the deadline date established for their mission journey. Meals during transit and excursions are the responsibility of the team member.

Payment

Deposits and airfare reimbursement payments are due in early 2024 according to each mission journey's deadlines.

Note: Checks should be made payable to IPC. (Check with your accountant re tax-deductible.)

Submit Initial Application to: Rev. Melissa Self Patrick in the Community Ministries office, or by email: mpatrick@ipc-usa.org.
