

BOY SCOUT TROOP #28

*Sponsored by Independent Presbyterian Church
Since 1923*

Today is Scout Sunday, and we recognize in worship the members of our church's Boy Scout Troop. One of the oldest ministries of IPC, Troop 28 was formed by the Men's Club in 1923 and initially housed in a Scout hut on the back corner of this lot. Our Scouts perform many services for our church ranging from service projects at the Children's Fresh Air Farm to hosting our annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper. We thank them for their role in the life of our church.

David Chalmers
Thomas Chalmers
Brady Cohagan
Forrest Crawford
Blair Cross
Everett Cross*
James Downs
Thomas Foster
Ellis Henderson
Carey Hereford
Deven Kitchens
Jack Langloh
Thomas Langloh

Ste'Phan Lawson
Oliver Lyons
Richard Monk
James Myers
Lewis Rand*
Peter Ray
Lawson Robinson*
Jack Roussel*
Andrew Rowe
Andy Schwebel*
Alec Simonton
Jack Swanner*

Scoutmaster: Kendall Holman

* Eagle Scout

Troop 28 Facts

- 98-year partnership between IPC and Troop 28
- Troop 28 is the oldest troop in the Vulcan District Council
- 195 Troop 28 Scouts have attained the rank of Eagle
- Children's Fresh Air Farm has benefited from 15 Troop 28 Eagle Scout projects
- The Troop serves a range of communities with recent Scouts from almost 20 different schools
- The Troop meets weekly in Highland Hall and has activities regularly at the Children's Fresh Air Farm
- IPC member support of the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper and the Holiday Greenery sale helps support Troop 28 activities

Want more information or to participate in the Troop? Contact Kendall Holman (kendallholman@bellsouth.net), Richard Monk (richardmonk28@gmail.com), or George Taylor (gtaylor@burr.com).